

Tragedy And Social Consciousness Bring A Voice To New Poetry Collection

Rising From Closed Doors And Heartbreak

For Immediate Release

Sacramento, CA – In this poignant collection by debut author Natasha Head, we get a firsthand look at her very personal disappointments and tragedies. This collection touches on social and political real-life issues that we all face. You will quickly find a personal connection as you read this powerful poetry collection.

How can we transform our hearts and minds into what we've always desired for ourselves, when our struggles in adversity make us feel like we have Nothing Left to Lose? Follow Nova Scotia poet, Natasha Head, as she navigates through the chaos of life's travels, and finds the courage to document her search for meaning and purpose. This captivating collection of work will leave you with hope, and the necessary encouragement to break through the barriers of your world.

Nothing Left to Lose is a 112 page poetry collection. Available on paperback with a retail price of $13.99, and eBook with a retail price of $5.99. The ISBN is: 978-0-9851548-1-3.

About Natasha Head:

Residing on Canada's scenic east coast, Natasha Head has been expressing herself through poetry as far back as she can remember. She has recently published her first poetry collection, Nothing Left to Lose, and participated in the collaborative work, Inspiration Speaks, both through Winter Goose Publishing. Her poetry blog, The Tashtoo Parlour, is a vibrant example of her work in progress, and she is proud to be a recurring host of the popular OpenLinkNight at dVersePoets.
